PALMYRA (Special to The Times Dispatch.)

PALMYRA, VA., August 11.—The Misses Pettit, of Rock Rest, gave a very enjoyable dance Tuesday evening in the Edgewood Hall. A unique feature of the occasion was the manner of securing partners for the opening quadrille. Each lady and gentleman was presented with a card in the shape of a lyre, beautifully painted in water colors, bearing a musical scroll of one or more bars of some familiar air, which each was requested to sing in order. As Lady No. 1 marched to position singing, "When other lips their tales of love may tell," Gentleman No. 1 joined her with. "Then you'll remember me"—much to the amusement of the company.

Delicious refreshments were served during the evening, and the "shirt-waist dance" was yoted the success of the season,
